Miller Pipeline Corp. Welcomes
Executive Vice President

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – Miller Pipeline Corporation, one of the nation's premier natural gas distribution and utility contractors and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Vectren Corporation (NYSE: VVC), recently announced the addition of Dale Anderson as executive vice president. Joining the executive leadership team Anderson will be responsible for strategic planning as well as high-level customer and operational support. He will also represent the company through participation in industry-related organizations and events.

Anderson has more than 22 years experience spearheading rapid and sustained growth within the utility construction industry. In addition, he has an extensive background in negotiating new contracts and maintaining existing customer relationships. Prior to joining Miller Pipeline Corp., Anderson served as senior vice president for the Quanta Services Organization.

"Dale is a great addition to our team of experienced construction professionals," said Doug Banning, CEO. "We value his proven leadership skills and he will play a significant role in the execution of our strategies and continued growth. He possesses the ability to assess complex business challenges and makes decisions based on industry experience, strong work ethics and integrity."
